LETTER

Commissioner for Patents

P.O. Box 1450

Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Today, the undersigned received a telephone call from Examiner Huisman regarding this case. Mr. Huisman indicated that he did not receive pages 10 through 15 of the Amendment mailed in response to the Office Action of October 3, 2003. That Amendment was mailed by the undersigned on March 2, 2004, and received by the Patent and Trademark Office on March 8, 2004, as indicated on a return postcard received by the undersigned (a copy of which is enclosed).

For the convenience of the Patent and Trademark Office, we retransmit a copy of that Amendment of March 2. To avoid confusion, the proposed drawing changes and formal drawings that were submitted with that Amendment of March 2 are not retransmitted; Examiner Huisman indicated that he did have those papers.

The undersigned appreciates the courtesy of Examiner Huisman in today's telephone call. The undersigned encourages further telephone calls if such will be helpful in the prosecution of this case.

Applicants restate their request, as made in the Amendment of March 2, for reconsideration of this application.

Respectfully submitted,

Rodney M. Anderson
